Good vibes only.

Welcome to Arlington! Our arms are open wide—not only to visitors but to new businesses and new residents, too. From families and friends to empty nesters, digital nomads and more, we invite you to explore our neighborhoods and experience the warm and friendly lifestyle Arlington offers. Come walk across our welcome mat and feel right at home!

BALLSTON

Hip, smart and sophisticated.

Ballston is a lively neighborhood surrounded by quiet park-laced residential areas. It's also a hub of innovation and technology, giving it an urban cool vibe.

You'll find inspired cuisine, global eateries, barbecue, beer, and billiards too. This is a true destination for foodies, shopaholics and art lovers. And fitness fanatics, we've got your workout!

CLARENDON

An urban village with Main Street style.

You may just want to call Clarendon a friendly village that begs to be walked. In your travels, you'll pass by trendy bars and restaurants with rooftop and sidewalk dining.

Drop in for something delicious or check out the shopping scene. You'll find everything from casual chic to designer duds to toys galore, and more.

COURTHOUSE

Where locals gather for fun.

It may be the seat of county government, but don't let the name fool you. Courthouse combines the hustle of a small city with the quiet charm of a suburb.

A convenient Metro station transports you to a lively plaza near multiple hotels, restaurants, shops and parks plus the weekly Arlington Farmers Market.

COLUMBIA PIKE

The world in one zip code.

This 3.5-mile-long corridor is one of our most culturally diverse neighborhoods. With over 150 nationalities and the largest selection of global restaurants, Columbia Pike reflects a rich and unique history.

Find it in our signature community events—including the renowned Columbia Pike Blues Festival—and our international markets. From Bangkok to Mexico to Japan to Africa, a world tour awaits you.

SHIRLINGTON

Dine al fresco on tree-lined streets.

Stroll through our village and enjoy more than seven local shops and a dozen local restaurants. Then catch a poetry reading at Busboys and Poets, arcade games at astro BEER hall, or a play at Tony-Award® winning Signature Theatre.

When hunger strikes, choose from Asian, Greek, Italian and so much more... all in one neighborhood. Mangia!

CRYSTAL CITY

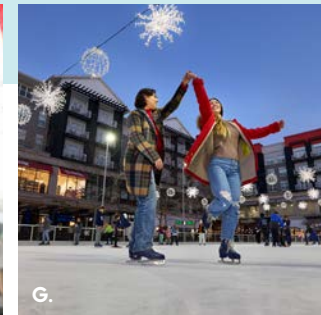

High-tech, high-energy.

A bustling urban downtown, Crystal City boasts an enviable location on the Potomac River with stunning views of Washington, D.C. and national monuments.

Crystal City sparkles with trend-setting restaurants and their award-winning chefs, an array of eclectic shops and unique boutiques, plus art galleries and a world-class aquatics center. Buckle up for a high-octane stay!

LANDING

PENTAGON CITY

Named for its famous five-sided neighbor.

But it's just as famous for being an incomparable shopping mecca. With three major shopping venues catering to fashionistas, trendsetters and bargain hunters, the neighborhood hosts nearly 200 stores and restaurants.

You can go ice skating, enjoy concerts, and find one-of-a-kind artisan handiworks. Then, take time for reflection and visit the Air Force Memorial and National 9/11 Pentagon Memorial.

ROSSLYN

Surrounded by beauty and historic landmarks.

Wait 'til you see the views from Rosslyn! Washington, D.C.'s skyline shimmers in close distance. Take it all in while enjoying outdoor dining, an award-winning public art collection, live music, and more than 100 events annually.

Don't miss our three-acre Gateway Park with its ornamental garden, amphitheater and maybe the largest sandbox you've ever seen. Come play!

LANGSTON BOULEVARD

A lively corridor of history, parks, restaurants and more.

Family-friendly Langston Boulevard welcomes the young and young-at-heart. We're an outdoor enthusiast's dream place to play with recreational parks, nature trails and walking tours.

Along the way, step back into Arlington's rich Black heritage as you explore the boulevard's historic neighborhoods, churches and landmarks. Then stop to indulge on French, Asian, Italian or down-home dining delights.

HOTELS

Located right across the Potomac River from Washington, D.C., in the heart of the nation's capital, Arlington offers the ideal combination of convenience and value for your stay.

With nearly 40 hotels just minutes from the National Mall, Smithsonian Museums and other area attractions, Arlington's walkable neighborhoods—most on the Metro system—make it easy to explore without ever needing to drive. Arlington's hotel rates are typically lower than those in downtown D.C., too!

FOOD & DRINK

Eat, drink and be merry in countless inviting venues throughout Arlington—and enjoy a culinary scene as dynamic as the people.

Arlington's array of global cuisines rivals that of many much-larger cities. With flavors as diverse as the county itself, eateries range from bistro to barbecue, from unpolished to upscale, from familiar to foreign. Phenomenal food and drink are on tap most anywhere in Arlington.

Sit down for a memorable meal at a chef-driven restaurant, ethnic eatery or European-style brasserie. Grab a quick bite at a gastropub, cozy cafe or neighborhood pizza joint.

PLAN YOUR TRIP

So much to explore.

Welcome to Arlington, Virginia! Conveniently located in the heart of the nation's capital, Arlington is home to treasured attractions and vibrant neighborhoods.

The Arlington Convention and Visitors Service is committed to helping you have the best possible time during your stay. Find even more details on getting here, getting around, and things to see and do by visiting stayarlington.com.

GETTING HERE

AIR

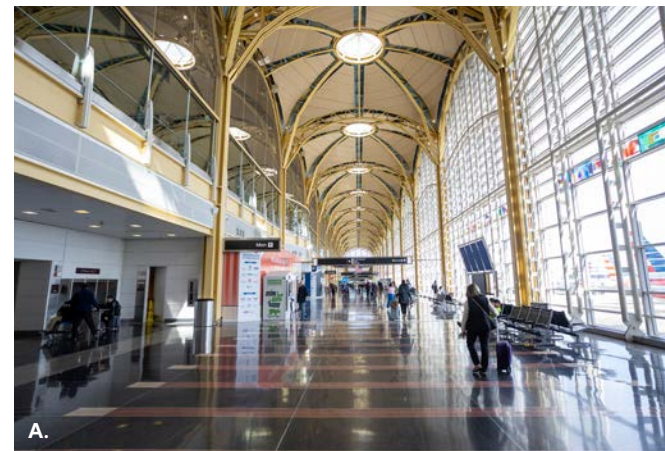

Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport (DCA) is located adjacent to Arlington's Crystal City neighborhood. The airport offers domestic and international flights to more than 100 nonstop destinations on eight airlines. Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD) and Baltimore/Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport (BWI) also serve the region and are conveniently connected by public transportation to Arlington.

TRAIN

Amtrak operates from Union Station in Washington, D.C., and Alexandria, Virginia. The Virginia Railway Express (VRE) has roundtrip service from the suburbs of Northern Virginia.

CAR

Highways I-66, I-395 and U.S. Routes 1, 29 and 50 all connect to Arlington. Hotels have on-site parking, and Arlington counts more than 5,700 on-street parking spaces and more than 100,000 off-street spots in garages and lots.

GETTING AROUND

WALKING

Arlington is designated a Platinum-Level Walk-Friendly Community and America's Most Walkable Suburb by America Walks. Streets are well-lit, tree-lined and enlivened by enticing public art, popular cafes, parks and unique shops. Pack your comfortable shoes because you're going to enjoy a whole lot of strolling when you visit.

BIKING

Arlington has 49 miles of paved trails and has earned a Gold-Level Bicycle-Friendly Community designation. Rent a bike at one of more than 110 Capital Bikeshare kiosks sprinkled throughout the county.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

Arlington has 11 Metrorail stations on four different lines (Blue, Orange, Silver and Yellow) providing easy connectivity to Washington, D.C. and the region. The expansive Metrobus and Arlington ART bus systems have abundant routes, with Arlington's Shirlington Station serving as a major hub.

ACCESSIBLE TRAVEL

Arlington embraces the Americans with Disabilities Act's (ADA) goal of true inclusion. Search "Accessibility" on stayarlington.com for information about accessibility in Arlington's attractions, parks, public transit and more.
